

Global charities and campaigners are calling for cancellation of Pakistan's debt claiming that all repayments should be frozen and resources directed to recovery in light of the recent floods. More details in the Jubilee Debt Campaign press release and dedicated webpage . See also press coverage in the Guardian.