

This mission provided urgent advice to the Government on financing its development and building capacity for managing development financing. Based on its results, the Government has contracted DFI to design a policy for financing its National Development Plan and to provide institutional and capacity-building support in establishing a Debt Management Unit in the Finance Ministry.