

This mission conducted high-level consultations to move Uganda's Partnership Policy (which covers management of aid and wider aspects of the global partnership for development) forward. As a result of the mission, a final policy will be agreed in December and initial monitoring of performance conducted in Q1 2011.