

DRI took part in a World Bank mission aimed at producing a reform plan of Burundi's public debt management. The plan focused on 4 priority areas: legal and institutional framework; operational risks; forecast and treasury management and debt management's publication, analysis and strategy. The action plan and implementation schedule were subsequently shared with the authorities at a results' dissemination and information sharing session.