

DFI will be supporting the UN Department of Economic and Social Affairs and UNDP to implement programmes to strengthen national mutual accountability mechanisms for development cooperation and its results in 4 pilot African countries during 2013. The work builds on the earlier global analysis of MA progress and DFI's experience in providing MA support to more than 30 low- and middle-income countries.