

A joint World Bank-DRI mission visited Tbilisi in the Republic of Georgia to assess debt management activities in the country based on the DeMPA methodology developed by the World Bank. The mission met with staff from various institutions involved in debt management and presented its preliminary assessment to the authorities. The final assessment report should submit its final report to the Georgian authorities by the end of July 2013.