

At the request of multiple international organisations and CSOs, DFI has begun analysing breakdowns of spending by province, region or district within countries so as to assess whether spending is equitable in terms of being related to need, poverty or other indicators or factors. Analysis has so far been completed for Guatemala, India, Mozambique, Peru, South Africa, Spain and Uganda. A summary of findings will be posted on the GSW site shortly.