

In the CSO seminars' programme during the BWI Spring Meetings, DFI proposed a motion that "The World Needs a Sovereign Debt Bankruptcy Procedure", in an Oxford-style debate organised by New Rules for Global Finance, and won the motion by 80-20% and by convincing 20% of the audience to change their positions to favour the motion. A video of the debate is available on the New Rules website .