

DRI has helped several countries to negotiate their commercial debt reduction agreements, including as financial advisor on IDA Debt Reduction, and through London Club and debt conversion operations. It also helps countries to exchange information with other debtors on how they have negotiated the most favourable terms.

For more information and to request assistance, please contact DFI