

Uganda disseminated preliminary results for its Private Sector Investment Survey 2009 in July. This covered data for 2007-8, and tracked the impact of the global economic crisis. The preliminary report is now available online, along with reports for its earlier surveys.