There are no translations available.

DFI assisted the Organisation Internationale de la Francophonie to prepare with the participation of several Francophone developing country participants in the opening informal sessions of the Financing for Development (FfD) negotiations in New York, which will culminate in the FfD Conference to be held in Addis Ababa on 13-16 July 2015. Ministers and officials from the Democratic Republic of Congo and Senegal spoke on debt relief, partnerships for development and international and domestic tax policy.